

Conference

Smart regulation:

Legislative opportunities for the EU to improve corporate accountability

European Parliament, Brussels
29th May 2008

The European Coalition for Corporate Justice (ECCJ) invites you to join us in the presentation of policy proposals to strengthen current EU legislation to provide greater accountability of EU companies' operations abroad. The conference will be hosted by the Party of European Socialists.

Proposals include:

- ⇒ redefine directors' duties for negative social and environmental impacts
- ⇒ ease access to justice for victims of human rights and environmental abuses
- ⇒ introduction of mandatory social and environmental reporting requirements

To register and for more information: www.corporatejustice.org

ECCJ brings together over 200 civil society organisations working on issues of Corporate Justice around Europe, including trade unions, consumers' organizations and NGOs like the FIDH and national chapters of Oxfam, Greenpeace, Amnesty International and Friends of the Earth.